Approved Courses for the Sustainability Minor, Fall 2015

CORE CLASSES:

IDS 206-000: Foundations of Sustainability
M / W 11:30 am-12:45pm
Professor Hilary King

SUSTAINABILITY MINOR ELECTIVES:

ANT 252-000: Fast Food/Slow Food
M/W/F 10:00-10:50 am
Professor Peggy Barlett

ANT 386-000: Sustainable Food Fair
M/W 5:30 – 6:45 pm
Professor Peggy Barlett
The class will meet for only the first half of the semester. Past fair course participants are encouraged to register again.

BIOL 247-000 / ENVS 247-000: Ecology
M/W/F 1:00 – 1:50 pm
Professor Christopher Beck
There is also a separate 2 credit-hour lab (BIOL 247LW/ENVS 247LW) associated with this class. The Lab is not required.

ECON 372-000: Health Policy & Economics
M/W/F 12:00 – 12:50 pm
Professor Ian McCarthy

ENVS 120-000: Living in the Anthropocene
Tu/Th 11:30 am -12:45 pm
Professor Shaunna Donaher

HIST 344-000 / ENVS 344-000: American Environmental History
M/W 11:30 am -12:45 pm
Professor Patrick Allitt

HLTH 385-004 / ANT 385-005: Food, Health, & Society
M/W/F 1:00-1:50 pm
Professor Cassandra Quave

IDS 200W-000: Interdisciplinary Foundations
M/W 8:30 – 9:45 am
Professor Peter Wakefield
IDS 200 and IDS 201 are complementary courses and students in either are encouraged to take the other

IDS 205W-00P: Science and the Nature of Evidence
M/W 10:00 -11:15 am
Professors Peter Wakefield & Ari Eisen
Registration requires permission from instructor

PHIL 117: Nature/Environment/Sustainability
Tu/Th/F 11 – 11:50 am
Professor Omar Quinonez

POL$ 370A-00P / CBSC 370 A-00P/ SOC 370A-00P: Community Building & Social Change I
M/W 11:30 am -12:45 pm
Professor Michael Rich
Open only to undergraduate students by permission of the instructor.
Additionally, this course is required for all students seeking to apply for the fellowship in Community Building and Social Change.

SOC 289-000: Special Topics: The Politics of Food, Hunger, and Sustainability
Tu/Th/F 11:00 – 11:50 am
Professor Alison Heslin